

Childbirth Education Classes

Educating expectant families on their exciting journey through the birth experience

Aultman Orrville Hospital (AOH) is pleased to offer childbirth education classes that cover a variety of topics, including pregnancy, labor, modes of delivery, caring for yourself after childbirth and breastfeeding basics.

These classes are taught by an obstetric registered nurse and will assist you with making informed decisions about your birth experience. Childbirth education can also bring peace of mind and decrease anxiety.
